My dear Mr Forman

I imagine you have not written to me about the Drama, because you did not like to disappoint me, I am sorry for it, as you may suppose; but I have only to add another failure to my numerous disappointments in this life, and bear all with patience.

In looking over your letters, I see you have a balance in my favor of £ 20 " 9 I should feel greatly obliged if you would forward me this sum, and add to it another £ 20 - from the Queensland fund, thus reducing my cattle capital to £ 180 - I am really sorry to touch this fund; but I have no remedy. I have received from
